

1 ADULT ENTERTAINMENT TAVERNS.

2
3 FINDINGS.

4
5 The First Amendment of the United States Constitution protects the rights of individuals
6 to present adult entertainment which includes nude dancing, nude entertainment or 7 material with themes or content of a sexual nature. The Town of Bristol may not, and 8 does not desire to, interfere with the right of individuals to present or to attend adult
9 entertainment.

10
11 Individuals in the Town of Bristol who do not choose to present or attend adult 12 entertainment also have constitutionally protected rights to privacy and security in their 13 property. The Town and broader community have an interest in maintaining order and 14 preventing negative effects from any business which will generate substantial customer
15 volume, automobile traffic and impacts on neighboring properties. These concerns
16 cannot and do not justify forbidding the expression of protected ideas or entertainment.
17 But these concerns do require that the Town exercise its police powers to assure that the 18 exercise of First Amendment rights is not conducted to the detriment of the rights of 19 others.

20
21 The Town of Bristol has several existing establishments which are zoned and licensed for 22 the service of alcoholic beverages. Those establishments were zoned and licensed some 23 time ago before the Town engaged in land use planning aimed at resolving potential
24 conflicts between land uses, and before the Town adopted ordinances related to public
25 peace and good order.

26
27 In order to assure that adult entertainment establishments may operate without adversely
28 impacting the community, and, therefore, to make it possible for individuals to exercise
29 their First Amendment rights, the Town of Bristol finds that it is necessary and 30 appropriate to adopt a licensing ordinance which allows the Town to assure that adult
31 entertainment establishments are operated in a fashion which does not cause unacceptable
32 impacts on the rights of others.

33
34 NOW, THEREFORE,

35
36 The Town Board of the Town of Bristol does hereby ordain as follows:

37
